

Dr. Beth's

Day of Play

Compassionate Parenting Workshop for Children & Parents with Beth Halbert, Psy.D, M.Ed. & Betty Anderson of Polkadot! Productions

Together with your child you will sing, dance, play, share and discover each other in new and exciting ways!

This One-Day workshop is a springboard to self-understanding and self-expression for you and your child. It is customized to meet each participant's needs for emotional health and peaceful well-being.

Children will enjoy dance, art, movement, music and other fun activities to encourage expression of their magnificent inner worlds.
Parents will identify generational patterns of behavior they would like to transform through writing, discussion, group sharing, play and other useful practices.
